April Network Meeting

The April Network meeting is dedicated to the Facilitated Dialogues: The Albuquerque Collaborative on Police Community Relations is an effort by the City of Albuquerque to improve relations between APD and the community. The objective is to work with the community to help craft a mutually beneficial plan for the future and the City is seeking to incorporate public feedback and involvement. The Collaborative Dialogue series is a tool for harvesting the concerns, issues and proposed solutions that are most important to the community. This is the time for the Network members to voice their thoughts. The dialogue will allow the Network participants to discuss issues that affect their common interests. Each discussion group within the Dialogue is led by a professional contract facilitator.
